Condition of movement not assessed, Removal of bracelet required to confirm exact reference number. Note: Although in our opinion the case and movement are authentic, based on our examination and research, we are not able to confirm the authenticity of this bracelet. The bracelet surface tests as 18k, however has a considerably lighter heft than comparable authentic examples. Additionally, there is slightly crooked 8385 stamping and rough metalwork. For further confirmation, removal of bracelet would be required to individually weigh and xray	1	EA
